A learned risk model and graph, constrained by medical rules, find the safest path to lower risk and turn it into a checked treatment plan.